The following tribute to his memory and Tin Repairs Chief Bushyhead Gets a Restraining is from the pen of a well known Calafornian: For thirty years or more GUTHEIB, I. T., March 3.-Ex-chief George Hearst has been one of the vital possessor of a great fortune that he will be nominated, It is not an obituary the Moscow government, commonplace but the simple truth to say that his death has brought sorrow to thousands of hearts. Change of fortune made no change in the man. As a senator of the United States he was the same simple, unaffected, clear headed, warm-hearted George Hearst who mined on the Feather and Yuba in the fifties and took his share of the rough free life of the claims and cabins. To the thousands of comrades who knew him he remained always as a comrade. Ostentation was abhorrent to the man formed on his rugged lines and it will never be known how many successful men owe their beginnings to him or how many broken lives were made easier to live because of his hidden helping hand. To hundreds upon hundreds of the associates and even the acquaintances of pioneer times he was a good providence, because ifornians whose experience reached back to the days when railroads and the sharp completion of commercial life were unknown on the coast. His years of hard work and intimate mingling with men of every social and intellectual grade gave him a knowledge of human nature and a sympathy with its defects and weaknesses which kept him free from that pride of purse and hardness of feeling that sometimes go with the riches of the self-made man, and while he had a singularly keen perception of character and a shrewdness that baffled all pretenders, his heart was tender, his charity great and his capacity for forgiveness inexhaustible. Neither in business, politics nor in private life would he 971/8; July, 943/4.
